

With the ProcessUnity Customer Summit scheduled, you may need some help justifying the cost and the time away from daily duties. To help you justify your attendance, here are just a few of the many benefits you will enjoy as an attendee.

Discover Best Practices for Your Program.

The ProcessUnity Customer Summit is a three-day event designed to bring together users from a wide range of industries and process maturity levels to share, learn and grow. With bootcamp training, and technical and business-case tracks, you will learn from industry leaders and incrementally improve your program. With a room full of peer users, and ProcessUnity experts, this is a priceless opportunity to ask your questions and discover innovative solutions.

Network with Your Peers.

Networking at the ProcessUnity Customer Summit is a fantastic opportunity to grow your knowledge base and inspire a different way of thinking by being exposed to problem-solving and new use cases. Find industry peers, users tackling something with a different approach, or new ways to leverage the platform.

Get Inspired.

Think about a couple of long-term projects and strategies you have within your organization. These will be your objectives to seek inspiration or solutions for when you're at the ProcessUnity Customer Summit. Agree to set one actionable item that will have an immediate impact on your return. With insight into the newest releases and future vision, you can make sure there are no missed opportunities in your processes.

Preview New products and Releases.

Make the right program decisions based on the future of the ProcessUnity platform. Our team will showcase new features and functionality that will give you an advanced start on program enhancements. There will be an array of product demonstrations that will deliver an invaluable peek into what is possible.

Get Hand-On Training with ProcessUnity Experts.

ProcessUnity bootcamp delivers close interaction and discussion with a team of experts, developers and trainers. With a powerhouse of knowledge and answers, it will be nearly impossible to come away without a host of new learnings. Case studies and roundtable discussions throughout the conference provide a peek into how industry-leading organizations from a broad range of sectors get the most benefit from their ProcessUnity implementations.
